The composition and calculation of the Factor Index specified above is described in the following. The Index Calculation Agent will make an index guide available on the Information Page for each Factor Index, containing this description together with the stipulations in the Final Terms. The index guide constitutes the basis for calculating and publishing the Factor Index.

A) INDEX DESCRIPTION

The Factor Index reflects price movements in the Reference Instrument with a leverage factor of 15. An increase in the price of the Reference Instrument since the most recent calculation of an Index Closing Value results in a positive change in the Factor Index as compared to the previous price of the Factor Index and vice versa. The Factor Index therefore replicates a "long" strategy.

The Factor Index consists of a leverage component and a financing component.

Leverage component

The leverage component tracks an investment in the Reference Instrument, whereby movements in the price of the Reference Instrument are multiplied by the Leverage (Factor). This leverage effect occurs with either positive or negative movements in the price of the Reference Instrument, having a disproportionate effect on the value of the Factor Index. For example (leaving aside the financing component):

1. An increase in the price of the Reference Instrument (as compared to the most recent Valuation Price of the Reference Instrument) by 2% results in an increase in the Factor Index by $15 \times 2\%$;
2. A decrease in the price of the Reference Instrument (as compared to the most recent Valuation Price of the Reference Instrument) by 2% results in a decrease in the Factor Index by $15 \times 2\%$;

Financing component

The financing component reflects the income and costs that would be incurred in the event of a corresponding investment in the Reference Instrument.

Since an investment in futures does not involve the purchase of the reference asset underlying the future but simply consists of entering into a corresponding position in a futures contract, no expenditure is incurred for the acquisition of the reference asset underlying the future. Instead, the only requirement is to make a margin payment based on the position entered into in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Reference Exchange. The financing costs for the margin payment are reflected in the financing component.

The financing component also reflects the income that would be earned from a risk-free investment in line with the strategy of the leverage component and at the relevant Interest Rate.

Additionally, a fee charged by the Index Calculation Agent for the calculation and administration of the Factor Index is added (Index Fee).

If the costs of the margin payment and the Index Fee exceed the interest income based on the applicable Interest Rate on a particular day, the value of the Factor Index on that day is reduced.

B) INDEX DEFINITIONS

The definitions below shall apply for the purposes of this index description:

"Adjustment Date" means the first Index Calculation Day of each calendar month.

"Extraordinary Adjustment Event" means any of the following events as they relate to the Reference Instrument:

- (a) changes in the conditions on which the Reference Instrument is based or the principal features of the contract on the Reference Exchange;
- (b) other changes relating to the Reference Instrument by or on the Reference Exchange.

"Index Base Amount" means 0.00001

"Valuation Price" of the Current Reference Instrument for an Index Calculation Day means – subject to an Extraordinary Adjustment of the index calculation pursuant to section D) – the settlement price of the Current Reference Instrument determined and published on the Reference Exchange. For the sake of clarity: following a Rollover (see below), the Valuation Price of the new Current Reference Instrument is applicable for the continuing calculation of the Factor Index in accordance with section C).

If an Index Calculation Day is not a Trading Day, the Valuation Price for the immediately preceding Index Calculation Day shall continue to apply (adjusted where necessary, in the reasonable discretion of the Index Calculation Agent, if and to the extent that a Rollover has taken place since the preceding Index Calculation Day). If no Valuation Price for the Current Reference Instrument is determined or published on a Trading Day, the Index Calculation Agent shall determine the Valuation Price of the Current Reference Instrument for that day on the basis of the most recent prices set for the Current Reference Instrument in its due discretion.

"Financing Spread" represents (in the form of a premium over the relevant Interest Rate) the costs of the margin payment which may be incurred for investments in the Reference Instrument in line with the strategy replicated by the Factor Index.

The Financing Spread on the Index Start Date corresponds to the Initial Financing Spread. The Index Calculation Agent then adjusts the "Current Financing Spread" in its due discretion on each Adjustment Date to reflect current market conditions and publishes it in accordance with section E) of this index description. The adjusted Financing Spread shall apply immediately as from the relevant Adjustment Date.

"Initial Financing Spread" means 4.50% per annum.

"Trading Day" means every day on which the Current Reference Instrument is traded on the Reference Exchange.

"Leverage" means 15. It describes the impact that a change in the price of the Current Reference Instrument has on the relevant Factor Index.

"Index Calculation Agent" means Bank Vontobel AG, Gotthardstrasse 43, 8002 Zurich, Switzerland.

"Index Calculation Day" means every day from Monday to Friday.

"Index Fee" means 1.00% per annum. The Index Fee is charged each calendar day, beginning as of the Index Start Date. It is calculated on the basis of a 360-day year and the most recently calculated Index Closing Value.

"Index Closing Value" is calculated for each Index Calculation Day by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with section C) 1) of this index description on the basis of the Valuation Price of the Current Reference Instrument for this Index Calculation Day and published in accordance with section E) of this index description.

"Index Start Date" means 12 August 2019.

"Index Start Value" means 1,000 index points and represents the Index Closing Value on Index Calculation Day T=0 for the purposes of calculating the index in accordance with C).

"Index Currency" means USD.

"Information Page" means <https://indices.vontobel.com>.

"Contract Month" means the expiry month January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November, .

"Reference Instrument Price" means at any time during the trading period on the Reference Exchange the price of the Current Reference Instrument on the Reference Exchange, as determined by the Index Calculation Agent.

"Reference Exchange" means IntercontinentalExchange (ICE).

"Reference Instrument" means Brent Crude Oil Future.

Currency:	USD
ISIN:	XC0009677409
Bloomberg Symbol:	CO1 Comdty

"Current Reference Instrument" means the Initial Reference Instrument from the Index Start Date until the first Rollover Date. Once the Index Closing Value on the first Rollover Date has been calculated and determined, this Reference Instrument loses its validity and is replaced by the Reference Instrument contract for the Contract Months specified above next falling due on the Reference Exchange. On each subsequent Rollover Date, following the calculation and determination of the Index Closing Value, the Current Reference Instrument is replaced in turn by the Reference Instrument contract falling due on the Reference Exchange in the next following Contract Month (respectively a "Rollover").

Each Rollover is published by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with section E).

"Initial Reference Instrument" means Brent Crude Oil Future Nov 2019 (COX9 Comdty)

"Rollover Date" is determined in each case by the Index Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion and falls within a period of ten Trading Days prior to the last trading day of the Current Reference Instrument on the Reference Exchange. In the event that the first notice day of the Current Reference Instrument falls prior to its last trading day on the Reference Exchange, the period for the Rollover Date shall begin ten Trading Days before the first notice day and shall end with the last Trading Day of the Current Reference Instrument.

"Barrier" means 6%. It indicates the maximum permitted negative change in price of the Reference Instrument compared with its most recent Valuation Price before an Intraday Index Adjustment takes place.

"Interest Rate" means USD LIBOR O/N (overnight).

LIBOR stands for London InterBank Offered Rate. LIBOR is an average interest rate based on information submitted by the contributing banks. The panel banks indicate the interest rates at which they are able to refinance their own interbank activities in the relevant currency for the relevant term on an unsecured basis. To calculate the reference interest rate, the highest and lowest quartiles of these interest rates are eliminated, and the remaining interest rates are averaged. LIBOR is calculated for 7 different terms and 5 different currencies. The LIBOR interest rates (ICE Libor) are administered by ICE Benchmark Administration Limited (IBA) and determined each business day at 11 a.m. (London time). LIBOR O/N (overnight) stands for terms of 1 day.

If the Interest Rate is neither set nor published on an Index Calculation Day, the Interest Rate applied on the immediately preceding Index Calculation Day is used to calculate the Index in accordance with section C).

If the Interest Rate has neither been set nor published for ten consecutive Index Calculation Days or the Interest Rate will cease to exist, the Index Calculation Agent has the right and obligation to stipulate in its reasonable discretion an alternative relevant Interest Rate which has functions comparable to the previous Interest Rate.

C) INDEX CALCULATION

The Factor Index shall be calculated for the first time on the Index Start Date. The initial level of the Index on the Index Start Date corresponds to the Index Start Value. The respective current index level is calculated by the Index Calculation Agent on a continuous basis during the trading period of the Reference Instrument on the Reference Exchange on each Index Calculation Day, rounded to two decimal places and published in accordance with section E).

One index point corresponds to one unit of the Index Currency.

C) 1) Index Formula

The Factor Index is calculated for each time t during an Index Calculation Day T in accordance with the following formula, whereby the value of the factor index cannot fall below the Index Base Amount:

T:	current Index Calculation Day
IDX_t:	Index Value at time t on Index Calculation Day T
IDX_{T-1}:	Index Closing Value on Index Calculation Day T-1 which immediately precedes the current Index Calculation Day
L:	Leverage (Factor): 15
R_t:	Reference Instrument Price at time t
R_{T-1}:	Valuation Price on Index Calculation Day T-1
IR_{T-1}:	Interest Rate on Index Calculation Day T-1
FS_T:	Financing Spread on Index Calculation Day T
IG:	Index Fee
d:	Number of calendar days between Index Calculation Days T-1 and T
IBA:	Index Base Amount

C) 2) Intraday Index Adjustment

If at time s on Index Calculation Day T the Reference Instrument Price falls below the most recent Valuation Price of the Current Reference Instrument by more than 6% (Barrier), an "Intraday Index Adjustment" takes place, simulating a new day:

$$\begin{aligned} s &= T, \text{ i.e. } IDX_{T-1}(\text{new}) = IDX_s \\ R_{T-1}(\text{new}) &= R_{T-1}(\text{old}) \times 0.94 \\ d &= 0 \end{aligned}$$

A new Valuation Price valid after time s (R_{T-1}(new)) is calculated by multiplying the previous Valuation Price (R_{T-1}(old)) by 0.94.

The financing component remains unchanged. No additional costs are incurred for the newly simulated day.

D) EXTRAORDINARY ADJUSTMENT OF THE INDEX CALCULATION

In the event of an Extraordinary Adjustment Event occurring in relation to the Reference Instrument or the Current Reference Instrument, respectively, the Index Calculation Agent will adjust the index calculation on the Reference Date (as defined below). In doing so, the Index Calculation Agent will – to the extent – endeavour to calculate the leverage component as if no Extraordinary Adjustment Event had occurred.

The Index Calculation Agent will generally adjust the index calculation by correcting in its due discretion the relevant Valuation Price of the Current Reference Instrument on Index Calculation Day T-1 on the Reference Date, in order to factor into the index calculation the adjustments relating to the (Current) Reference Instrument made on the Reference Exchange.

The Index Calculation Agent may adjust the index calculation in some other manner if it deems this necessary in its due discretion in order to reflect differences between this Factor Index and the Reference Instrument traded on the Reference Exchange. Adjustments of this nature may relate in particular to the replacement of the Reference Instrument by another comparable Reference Instrument on another Reference Exchange and, where relevant, to the designation of a different Reference Exchange and a different Reference Instrument Price.

The list of Extraordinary Adjustment Events cited in section B) is not exhaustive. The deciding factor is whether the Reference Exchange deems an adjustment of the contract size, the Reference Instrument or the designation of the relevant exchange determining the price of the reference item of the Reference Instrument to be necessary. In cases of doubt about the application of the adjustment rules, the Index Calculation Agent shall decide such questions in its reasonable discretion. The rules and regulations of the Reference Exchange shall apply in addition to the provisions set out above.

"Reference Date" within the meaning of this index description means the first Index Calculation Day on which the relevant Reference Instruments are traded on the Reference Exchange after taking the adjustment into account.

Adjustments relating to the Factor Index and all other measures taken under this section will be published by the Index Calculation Agent in accordance with section E).

E) NOTICES

All notices pertaining to the Factor Index will be published on the Information Page. Such notices shall be deemed to have been given on the date on which they are first published.

Notices are made for informational purposes only and do not represent a precondition for legal effectiveness.

C.8 Description of the rights attached to the securities including ranking and limitations to those rights

Redemption on exercise or termination

The Securities grant the Security Holder the right to require the Issuer to redeem the Securities on exercise or termination by the payment of a Cash Amount, as described in C.15.

Governing law

The form and content of the Securities as well as all rights and obligations of the Issuer and of the Security Holders are determined in accordance with German law, except that the registration of Danish Uncertificated Certificates is governed by Danish law.

The form and content of the Swiss Guarantee and all rights and obligations arising from it are determined in accordance with Swiss law.

Ranking of the Securities

The obligations arising from the Securities constitute direct and unsecured obligations of the Issuer that rank pari passu in relation to one another and in relation to all other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, with the exception of obligations that have priority due to mandatory statutory requirements. The obligations of the Issuer are not secured by assets of the Issuer.

Limitations to the rights

In accordance with the Terms and Conditions, the Issuer may make adjustments upon the occurrence of defined events in order to reflect relevant changes or events relating to the respective Underlying (as defined in Element C.20 below), or may terminate the Securities extraordinarily. In the case of an extraordinary termination, all investors' rights as described above cease to exist and there is the risk that the extraordinary termination amount may be zero (0).

In the event that a market disruption occurs, there may be a delay in valuing the Security in relation to the Underlying, and this may affect the value of the Securities and/or delay the payment of the Cash Amount. In such cases, the Issuer may, in its reasonable discretion (sections 315, 317 BGB), determine a rate, level or price for the Underlying that is relevant for the purposes of valuing the Securities.

The Issuer has the right to terminate all of the Securities ordinarily by the payment of the ordinary termination amount (which is calculated in the same way as the Cash Amount) and to end the term of the Securities.

C.11 Admission to trading on a regulated market or other equivalent markets	– not applicable – An admission of the Securities to trading on a regulated market or other equivalent markets is not intended. Application will be made for the Securities to be only included in the regulated unofficial market of the following exchanges: <table><tr><td>Exchange:</td><td>Market segment:</td></tr><tr><td>Nordic Growth Market</td><td>Nordic MTF Denmark</td></tr></table> The date on which the Securities are expected to be included in trading is 26 February 2020.	Exchange:	Market segment:	Nordic Growth Market	Nordic MTF Denmark
Exchange:	Market segment:

C.15 Description of how the value of the investment is affected by the value of the underlying instrument	On the basis of the Securities, investors can participate in the performance of a particular underlying without having to purchase the respective underlying (the " Factor Index ") or the financial instrument to which it is linked (the " Reference Instrument ") directly. Each Constant Leverage Certificate has a specifically created Factor Index as its underlying. The Factor Index implements the leverage (the factor), i.e. it disproportionately reflects the performance of the Reference Instrument on a daily basis by multiplying the change in its value by a constant factor. The Reference Instrument is a future or interest rate future, for more detailed information see C.20. Because of various features of the Securities, an investment in the Securities is not comparable to a direct investment in the underlying or the Reference Instrument. The principal characteristic of Constant Leverage Certificates is that, after allowing for the ratio, they reproduce the performance of the underlying, i.e. the Factor Index, on a one-to-one basis. The Factor Index is composed, calculated and published by Bank Vontobel AG, Zurich, a company affiliated to the Issuer. It consists of a leverage component and a financing component. The leverage component tracks an investment in the Reference Instrument, whereby movements in the price of the Reference Instrument are multiplied by the leverage (the " Factor "). The Factor is specified at the start of a new Factor Index and always remains unchanged for the entire calculation period of the Factor Index. Factor Indices therefore replicate a theoretical investment in a Reference Instrument, but movements in the price of the Reference Instrument are multiplied by the Factor. This leverage effect has a disproportionate effect on the value of the Factor Index in the case of both positive and negative movements in the Reference Instrument. An investment in futures does not involve the purchase of the reference asset underlying the future but simply consists of entering into a corresponding position in a futures contract. Instead, a payment must be made as a collateral for the position entered into (margin payment). The financing costs for such margin payment are reflected in the financing component. The financing component also reflects the income that would be earned from a risk-free investment in line with the strategy of the leverage component and at the relevant rate of interest. Additionally, a fee is charged by the index calculation agent for the calculation and administration of the Factor Index (index fee). If the costs of the margin payment and the index fee exceed the interest income based on the relevant rate of interest on a particular day, the financing component reduces the value of the Factor Index.

The Cash Amount for the Constant Leverage Certificates is dependent on the performance of the Underlying and corresponds to the Reference Price (as defined in C.19) under consideration of the Ratio.

Underlying: 15X Long Index linked to Brent Crude Oil Future V3
(for further details, see C.20)

Ratio: 0.01

See also the issue-specific information under C.16.

C.16 Expiration or maturity date	Constant Leverage Certificates do not have a fixed term and therefore do not grant the Security Holder the right to demand payment of the Cash Amount on a particular date, specified in advance at the time of issue, based on a particular price of the Underlying. The calculation and (subsequent) payment of the Cash Amount takes place when the Security Holder exercises the Securities effectively or when the Issuer ordinarily terminates the Securities.
	Valuation Date(s): (a) in case of a valid exercise by the Security Holder, the respective exercise date; (b) in case of an Ordinary Termination by the Issuer, the ordinary termination date.
	Maturity Date: third (3 rd) business day following the Valuation Date.
C.17 Description of the settlement procedure	Amounts due are calculated by the Calculation Agent and made available to the Central Securities Depository by the Issuer on the Maturity Date via the Paying Agents for onward transfer to the respective custodian banks for the purpose of crediting the Security Holders. The Issuer shall thereupon be released from all payment obligations. If a due payment is required to be made on a day that is not a Business Day, the payment may be postponed until the next following Business Day.

C.18 Description of redemption for derivative securities	The Securities are redeemed by the payment of the Cash Amount. Further details of the timing of redemption and how the amount is calculated can be found under C.15 to C.17. The Cash Amount is converted into the Settlement Currency of the Securities on the Valuation Date in accordance with the relevant conversion rate.
C.19 Exercise price/ final reference price of the underlying	The amount of the Cash Amount depends on the Reference Price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date. Reference Price is the closing price of the Underlying on the Valuation Date, as calculated and published in accordance with the index description.
C.20 Description of the underlying and where information on the underlying can be found	The underlying to which the Securities are linked is the 15X Long Index linked to Brent Crude Oil Future V3 (the " Underlying ") which is composed and calculated by the index calculation agent. 15X Long Index linked to Brent Crude Oil Future V3 ISIN Underlying: CH0450799397 Reference Instrument:: Brent Crude Oil Future Index calculation agent: Bank Vontobel AG, Gotthardstrasse 43, 8002 Zurich, Switzerland Further information about the Underlying is available on the internet at https://indices.vontobel.com/ and on Reuters <CH0450799397>.

Section D – Risks

D.2 Key information on the key risks relating to the Issuer and the Guarantor

Insolvency risk of the Issuer

The investors are exposed to the risk of the insolvency and therefore the illiquidity of the Issuer. There is therefore a general risk that the Issuer will be unable to fulfil all or some of its obligations arising from the Securities. In this event there is a threat of financial loss up to and including a total loss, irrespective of the performance of the Underlying.

The Securities are not covered by a deposit protection scheme. Furthermore, the Issuer is also not a member of a deposit protection fund or similar protection system, which would reimburse the Security Holders' claims in full or in part if the Issuer became insolvent.

For this reason, investors should take into consideration the creditworthiness of the Issuer when making their investment decisions. The Issuer's liable share capital amounts to only EUR 50,000. A purchase of the Securities therefore exposes the investor to a significantly higher credit risk than in the case of an issuer with a higher level of capital resources.

The Issuer enters into OTC hedging transactions (hedging transactions negotiated individually between two parties) exclusively with other companies within the Vontobel Group (i.e. Vontobel Holding AG together with all consolidated companies). As a result of this lack of diversification, the Issuer is exposed to cluster risk with respect to the possible insolvency of its counterparties, which would not be the case with a more widely diversified selection of contractual partners. Illiquidity or insolvency on the part of companies affiliated to the Issuer could therefore result directly in the illiquidity of the Issuer.

Market risk of the Issuer

A difficult macroeconomic situation may lead to a lower issue size and have a negative impact on the Issuer's results of operations. In this regard, the general market performance of securities depends in particular on the performance of the capital markets, which is in turn influenced by the general situation of the global economy and the economic and political framework in the respective countries (known as market risk).

Insolvency risk of the Guarantor

The investor bears the risk of the insolvency of the Guarantor. There is a general risk that the Guarantor will be unable to fulfil all or some of the obligations arising under the guarantee undertaking. For this reason, investors should take into consideration not only the creditworthiness of the Issuer, but also the creditworthiness of the Guarantor when making their investment decisions.

The Swiss Guarantor is not a member of a deposit protection fund or similar protection system, which would reimburse the Security Holders' claims in full or in part if the Swiss Guarantor became insolvent.

Risks associated with potential reorganization and settlement procedures

German and Swiss laws and regulations, respectively, grant the respective competent authority extensive powers and discretionary powers in the case of reorganization and settlement procedures of banks and parent companies of financial groups established under the respective national laws, such as Vontobel Holding AG, Zurich, Switzerland (the Swiss Guarantor) and Bank Vontobel Europe AG, Munich, Germany (the German Guarantor).

In the case such procedures are initiated, this may have a negative impact on the market price of the Securities and may result in the non-payment or only partial payment of the amounts due under the Guarantee.

Business risks relating to the Guarantor

The Guarantor's business is influenced by the prevailing market conditions and the impact they have on the operating (consolidated) Vontobel companies. The factors influencing the Guarantor's business may be caused by general market risks arising as a result of unfavourable movements in market prices, such as interest rates, exchange rates, share prices, commodity prices and the related volatilities, and have an adverse effect on the valuation of the underlyings and/or derivative financial products.

The Guarantor's financial condition may also be impacted by liquidity bottlenecks that may be caused, for example, by cash outflows when loan commitments are drawn down or when it is not possible to renew deposits, with the result that the Guarantor might be temporarily unable to meet short-term financing requirements.

D.3 Key information on the
D.6 key risks relating to the securities/
Risk of total loss

Risk of loss due to dependence on the performance of the Underlying

The Securities are financial instruments whose value is derived from the value of another reference object, the "Underlying". The Underlying is a Factor Index whose performance is largely dependent in turn on the performance of another financial instrument, the Reference Instrument. In the case of Securities linked to Factor Indices of the long type, a decrease of the Reference Instrument is disadvantageous for the investor.

Investors should also bear in mind that the Underlying is designed in such a way that the performance of the Reference Instrument is incorporated in the calculation of the Underlying together with a leverage effect. A change in the Reference Instrument results in a disproportionate change in the price of the Underlying and therefore also in the price of the Securities. Consequently, these Securities entail disproportionate risks of loss if the Reference Instrument and therefore also the Underlying moves in a direction that is unfavourable from the point of view of the investor. As a result of the particular method of calculating the Factor Index, sideways movements in the Reference Instrument can also result in significant decrease of the price of the Factor Index and therefore also of the Security.

There is no guarantee that the performance of the Underlying or its Reference Instrument will match the investor's expectations. If the Reference Instrument of the Underlying moves in a direction that is disadvantageous for the investor, there is a risk of loss up to and including a total loss.

Market price risks

The price of a Security depends primarily on the price of the respective Underlying to which it is linked and replicates its performance. All of the positive and negative factors affecting an Underlying (especially those relating to the relevant Reference Instrument and the risks entailed in an investment in such a Reference Instrument) are therefore also reflected in principle in the price of a Security.

The price of the Securities may perform negatively. This may be caused – as described above – by the price of the Underlying to which the Security is linked moving in the unfavourable direction or by other factors affecting the price (such as the volatility, a deterioration in the Issuer's credit rating and the performance of the economy as a whole).

Option risks with respect to the Securities

The Securities are derivative financial instruments incorporating an option right which may therefore have many features in common with options. Transactions with options may involve a high level of risk. An investment in the Securities may be subject to very pronounced fluctuations in value and in some circumstances the embedded option will be completely worthless on expiry. In this event, the investor may lose the entire amount invested in the Securities.

Volatility risk

An investment in Securities with Underlyings (linked to Reference Instruments) with a high volatility is fundamentally more risky than an investment in Securities or Underlyings with low volatility since it entails greater potential for incurring losses.

Risks relating to historical performance

The performance of an Underlying, of its Reference Instrument or of a Security in the past is not an indicator of its performance in the future.

Risks relating to financing the purchase of the Security with debt

If the purchase of the Securities is financed with debt, investors should be aware that in case that investment expectations do not realise they do not only have to bear a potential loss of the capital invested, but also have to pay the loan interest and to repay the loan. As a result, in this case investors are exposed to a significantly increased risk of loss.

Since the Securities do not provide any current income (such as interest or dividends), investors must not assume that they will be able to use such current income to service any loan interest falling due during the term of the Securities.

Transactions designed to exclude or limit risk

Investors may not be able to hedge adequately against the risks associated with the Securities.

Inflation risk

Inflation has a negative effect on the real value of assets held and on the return generated in real terms.

Risks due to the economic cycle

Losses may arise because investors do not take the cyclical performance of the economy with its corresponding upward and downward phases into account, or do not do so correctly, when making their investment decisions and consequently make investments, or hold or sell Securities, at phases of the economic cycle that are unfavourable from their point of view.

Psychological market risk

Factors of a psychological nature may also have a significant influence on the price of the Underlyings and therefore on the performance of the Securities. If the effect of these factors on the price of the Underlying or of its Reference Instrument differs from the market reaction expected by the investor, the investor may suffer a loss.

Risks relating to trading in the Securities, liquidity risk

The Market Maker (as defined in E.4) undertakes to provide bid and offer prices for the Securities pertaining to an issue subject to regular market conditions.

In the event of extraordinary market conditions or extremely volatile markets, the Market Maker will not provide any bid and offer prices. However, even in the case of regular market conditions, the Market Maker does not assume any legal responsibility towards the Securities Holders to provide such prices and/or that such prices provided by the Market Maker are reasonable.

Potential investors can therefore not assume that it will be possible to sell the Securities during their term and must be prepared in any event to hold the Securities until the next Exercise Date to redeem the Securities in accordance with the Terms and Conditions (by submitting an exercise notice).

Risks relating to the price determination of the Securities and the effect of transaction costs and commissions

The Issue Price (as defined in E.3) and the selling price for the Securities quoted in the secondary market may include a premium over the original mathematical value of the Securities (so-called fair value) that is not apparent to the investor. This margin and the actuarial value of the Securities is determined by the Issuer and/or Market Maker at its own discretion on the basis of internal pricing models and a number of other factors. These factors include inter alia the following parameters: actuarial value of the Securities, price and volatility of the Underlying, supply and demand with regard to the Securities, costs for risk hedging, premium for risk assumption, costs for structuring and distribution of the Securities, commissions, if any, as well as licence fees or management fees, if any.

For the aforesaid reasons, the prices provided by the Market Maker may deviate from the actuarial value of the Securities and/or the price to be expected from a commercial perspective.

Risk relating to the taxation of the Securities

The payment of taxes, levies, fees, deductions or other amounts incurred in connection with the Securities is the responsibility of the respective Security Holder and not of the Issuer. All payments made by the Issuer may be subject to taxes, levies, fees, deductions or other payments required to be made, paid, withheld or deducted.

Risks relating to the effect of hedging transactions by companies of the Vontobel Group

Hedging and trading transactions performed by the Issuer and by companies of the Vontobel Group in a Reference Instrument of a Factor Index may have a negative impact on the value of the Securities.

Risks in connection with adjustments, market disruptions, ex-traordinary termination and settlement

The Issuer or the Index Calculation Agent may make adjustments in order to reflect relevant changes or events relating to the Underlying or its Reference Instrument. The possibility cannot be excluded in this context that an adjustment may prove to be disadvantageous for the investor. The Issuer may also be entitled to terminate the Securities extraordinarily. In the case of an extraordinary termination, all investors' redemption rights cease to exist and there is the risk that the extraordinary termination amount may be zero (0). In the least favourable case, a total loss of the capital invested may occur.

Risk of termination by the Issuer

The Issuer has an ordinary right of termination, and the investor therefore faces the risk that the Issuer may terminate and redeem the Securities at a time at which the investor would not otherwise have sold or exercised the Securities. This may result in the investor not achieving the desired return and may entail a loss up to and including a total loss.

In this event, the Security Holders bear the risk that their expectations with respect to an increase in the value of the Securities can no longer be met due to their termination. In such cases investors may no longer be able to reinvest or may only be able to reinvest on less favourable terms and conditions.

The Issuer also has an extraordinary termination right involving the same risks for investors as in the case of ordinary termination.

Risks with respect to potential conflicts of interest

Conflicts of interest may exist among the companies of the Vontobel Group (in particular with respect to their function as index calculation agent) and third parties to the detriment of the investor which may affect the value of the Securities. The principal possible conflicts of interest are set out under E.4.

Information risk

There is a possibility that investors may make incorrect decisions because of missing, incomplete or incorrect information, which may be outside the Issuer's control.

Currency risk

Potential investors should be aware that an investment in the Securities is associated with exchange rate risks since the rate of exchange between the currency of the Underlying and the Settlement Currency of the Securities may move in a direction that is to their disadvantage.

If the Settlement Currency of the Securities is different from the investor's domestic currency or the currency in which an investor wishes to receive payments, potential investors will be exposed to exchange rate risks.

Risks relating to the calculation and design of the Underlying

In addition to the leverage effect described above, costs (e.g. securities lending costs) and fees (e.g. an index fee) may be incurred, depending on the structure of the Factor Index and of the underlying Reference Instrument, that also have the effect of reducing the value of the Factor Index and therefore the price of the Underlying.

Risk of total loss

The Securities are particularly risky investment instruments, which combine features of derivatives transactions with those of leveraged products. The Securities are therefore associated with disproportionate risks of loss (risk of total loss). If a loss arises, it will consist of the price paid for the Security and the costs incurred, such as custodian fees or brokerage and/or stock exchange commissions. This risk of loss exists irrespective of the financial condition of the Issuer and of the Guarantor.

There is no provision for regular distributions, payments of interest or a minimum repayment amount. The loss of capital may be substantial with the result that in certain circumstances investors may suffer a total loss of their investment.

Section E – Offer

E.2b	Reasons for the offer and use of proceeds	The Issuer is free to use the proceeds from the issue of the Securities. The use of such proceeds is solely for the purpose of making profits and/or hedging certain risks of the Issuer. In no event shall the Issuer be obliged to invest the proceeds from the Securities into the underlying asset or other assets.

E.4	Interests that are material to the issue/ offer (including conflicts of interest)	Conflicts of interest may exist among the companies of the Vontobel Group that may have an adverse effect on the value of the Underlying and therefore the value of the Securities. Trading transactions relating to the Reference Instrument During the term of the Securities, the companies of the Vontobel Group may be involved in trading transactions, for their own account or for a customer's account, that directly or indirectly relate to the Reference Instrument. The companies of the Vontobel Group may also become counterparties in hedging transactions relating to the Issuer's obligations arising from the Securities. Such trading or hedging transactions may have a negative impact on the value of the Reference Instrument and thus have a negative impact on the Underlying and thus on the value of the Securities. Exercise of other functions by companies of the Vontobel Group The Underlying of the Securities is a proprietary index composed and calculated by Bank Vontobel AG, Zurich, a company affiliated to the Issuer as Index Calculation Agent. The index calculation agent consequently has a direct influence on the Underlying and therefore – due to the dependence of the Securities on the performance of the Underlying – also on the value of the Securities. The Issuer and other companies of the Vontobel Group may also exercise other functions in relation to the Securities, e.g. as calculation agent and/or as market maker. Such function may enable the Issuer and/or other companies of the Vontobel Group to determine the composition of the Underlying or to calculate its value. These functions may also lead to conflicts of interest, both among the respective companies of the Vontobel Group and between these companies and the investors, in determining the prices of the Securities and in making other associated determinations. Activity as Market Maker for the Securities Bank Vontobel Europe AG will act as market maker (the "Market Maker") for the Securities. Through such liquidity providing activities, the Market Maker – supported by other companies of the Vontobel Group – will determine the price of the Securities on the basis of internal pricing models and a number of other factors. As a result, the prices set by the Market Maker may differ significantly from the fair value of the Securities and/or the value they would be expected to have in economic terms at a particular point in time. In addition, the Market Maker may at any time revise the method it uses to determine the prices quoted, e.g. by widening or narrowing the spreads between bid and offer prices.
E.7	Estimated expenses charged to the investor by the Issuer or the Offeror	The estimated expenses for the Securities, including the costs for the admission to exchange trading, are included in the Issue Price or the purchase price, as the case may be. If the investor purchases the Securities from a distributor, the purchase price to be paid by the investor may include sales commissions that have to be disclosed by the distributor. Information on any transaction costs may be obtained from the relevant distributor.

Udsteder forpligtelser er ikke sikret af Udsteders aktiver.

Rettighedsindskrænkninger

De for Værdipapirerne gældende vilkår og betingelser giver Udsteder ret til at foretage justeringer i tilfælde af at definerede hændelser indtræffer, med henblik på at afspejle relevante ændringer eller hændelser, der er knyttet til de respektive Underliggende aktiver (som defineret i Element C.20 foroven), eller som giver Udsteder ret til ekstraordinært at terminere Værdipapirerne. I tilfælde af en ekstraordinær terminering, ophører alle investorernes rettigheder, som de står beskrevet foroven, med at eksistere, og der består den risiko, at det ekstraordinære termineringsbeløb er lig nul (0).

I tilfælde af en forstyrrelse af markedet, kan der forekomme en forsinkelse i værdiansættelsen af Værdipapirerne i forhold til det Underliggende aktiv, og dette kan påvirke værdien af Værdipapirerne og/eller forsinke udbetalingen af den Endelige Kontantværdi. I sådanne tilfælde, er Udsteder efter rimeligt skøn berettiget til at fastsætte en kurs, niveau eller pris for det Underliggende aktiv, som er relevant i forhold til at værdiansætte Værdipapirerne.

Udsteder har ret til at terminere alle Værdipapirerne ordinært ved at betale det ordinære termineringsbeløb (der beregnes på samme måde som den Endelige Kontantværdi).

C.11 Optagelse til handel på et reguleret marked eller andre tilsvarende markeder	– ikke relevant – Udstederen vil ikke indlevere en anmodning om optagelse af Værdipapirerne til handel på et reguleret marked eller andre tilsvarende markeder. Udstederen vil indlevere en anmodning om optagelse af Værdipapirerne til handel på: børs(er): Nordic Growth Market markedssegment: Nordic MTF Denmark Datoen, hvor det forventes, at Værdipapirerne inkluderet i handel er 26 februar 2020.
C.15 Beskrivelse af, hvordan værdien af investeringen påvirkes af det underliggende instrument	På grundlag af Værdipapirerne, kan investorer tage del i et specifikt underliggende aktiv uden direkte at skulle købe det pågældende underliggende aktiv (" Faktorindekset ") eller det finansielle instrument, som det er koblet til (" Referenceinstrumentet "). Hvert Konstant Finansielt Gearede Certifikat har et specifikt oprettet Faktorindeks som dets underliggende aktiv. Faktorindekset implementerer gearingen (faktoren), dvs. det afspejler uforholdsmæssigt Referenceinstrumentets præstation dagligt ved at gange dets værdiændring med en konstant faktor. Referenceinstrumentet er en future eller rentefuture, for yderligere oplysninger se C.20. På grund af Værdipapirernes forskellige karakteristika, kan en investering i Værdipapirerne ikke sammenlignes med en direkte investering i de underliggende aktiver eller i Referenceinstrumentet. Den primære egenskab ved Konstant Finansielt Gearede Certifikater er, når forholdet er godkendt, at de replicerer de underliggende aktivers præstation, dvs. Faktorindekset, en-til-en. Faktorindekset opstilles, beregnes og udgives af Bank Vontobel AG, Zürich, som er en virksomhed, der er affiliert med Udsteder. Det består af en gearingkomponent og en finansieringskomponent. Gearingkomponenten tracker en investering i Referenceinstrumentet, hvorved bevægelser i Referenceinstrumentets pris ganges med gearingen (" Faktoren "). Faktoren specificeres ved begyndelsen af et nyt Faktorindeks og forbliver altid uændret under hele Faktorindeksets beregningsperiode. Faktorindekser replicerer derfor en teoretisk investering i et Referenceinstrument, men bevægelser i Referenceinstrumentets pris ganges med Faktoren. Denne gearingeffekt har en uforholdsmæssig effekt på Faktorindeksets værdi, både hvad gælder positive og negative bevægelser i Referenceinstrumentet. En investering i futures indebærer ikke køb af det referenceaktiv, der underligger futuren, men indebærer blot at indtage en modsvarende position i en futures-kontrakt. I stedet skal der indtages en betaling som sikkerhedsstillelse for den position, der indtages (margenbetaling). Finansieringsomkostningerne for en sådan margenbetaling afspejles i finansieringskomponenten. Finansieringskomponenten afspejler også den indtægt, der ville foreligge fra en risikofri investering i tråd med strategien for gearingkomponenten og med den relevante rentesats. Desuden pålægger indeksberegningssagenten et gebyr for at beregne og administrere Faktorindekset (indeksgebyr). Hvis omkostningerne ved margenbetalingen og indeksgebyret overstiger renteindtægterne baseret på den relevante rentesats på en given dag, nedsætter finansieringskomponenten værdien af Faktorindekset.

Den Endelige Kontantværdi af de Konstant Finansielt Gearede Certifikater afhænger af, hvordan det Underliggende aktiv præsterer, og modsvarer Referenceprisen (som defineret i C.19) under hensyntagen til Forholdet.

C.16 Udløbs-/indløsningsdato	Konstant Finansielt Gearede Certifikater er ikke tidsbegrænsede og giver derfor ikke Værdipapirindehaveren ret til at forlange udbetaling af den Endelige Kontantværdi på en specifik dato, angivet på udstedelsestidspunktet, på baggrund af en specifik pris for det Underliggende aktiv. Beregningen og (efterfølgende) betaling af det Endelige Kontantbeløb finder sted, når Værdipapirindehaveren effektivt eksekverer Værdipapirerne, eller når Udsteder ordinært terminerer Værdipapirerne.
Udløbs-/indløsningsdato	(a) i tilfælde af en gyldig udøvelse af sikkerheds-haveren den respektive udnyttelsesdato; (b) i tilfælde af en ordinær opsigelse fra udstederen den ordinære opsigelsesdato.

C.17 Afviklingsprocedure	Skyldige beløb beregnes af Beregningsagenten og stilles til rådighed for Værdipapircentralen af Udsteder på Indløsningsdatoen via de Betalende Agenter til kreditering til de relevante Værdipapirindehavere. Overførslen fra Værdipapircentralen eller i medfør af Værdipapircentralens instruktioner fritager Udsteder fra dens betalingsforpligtelser ift. Værdipapirerne til et beløb, der svarer til en sådan betaling. Hvis et skyldigt beløb forfalder på en dag, som ikke er en Bankdag, kan betalingen udskydes til efterfølgende Bankdag.

D.2 Nøgleoplysninger om væsentlige risici, der er særlige for Udsteder og Garanten

Risiko for at Udsteder bliver insolvent

Investorerne er udsat for risikoen for insolvens og derfor for Udsteders illikviditet. Der er derfor en generel risiko for, at Udsteder ikke vil kunne overholde alle eller nogle af sine forpligtelser forbundet med Værdipapirerne. I dette tilfælde er foreliggende der en trussel om finansielt tab op til og med et totaltab, uanset hvordan det Underliggende aktiv præsterer.

Værdipapirerne er ikke dækket af en indlånsgaranti. Ydermere er Udsteder ikke medlem af en indlånsgarantifond eller lignende garantisystem, som ville refundere Værdipapirindehavernes krav delvist eller i sin helhed, skulle Udsteder blive insolvent.

Af denne grund bør investorer tage højde for Udsteders kreditværdighed, når de træffer investeringsbeslutninger. Udsteders er kun ansvarlig for en aktiekapitalsum på EUR 50.000. Erhvervelse af Værdipapirerne udsætter derfor investor for en markant større kreditrisiko end tilfældet ville være, hvis investor investerede med en udsteder, som har større kapitalressourcer.

Udsteder indgår udelukkende i OTC-hedging-transaktioner (hedging-transaktioner, der forhandles individuelt mellem to parter) med andre virksomheder i Vontobel Gruppen (dvs. Vontobel Holding AG sammen med alle konsoliderede virksomheder.) På grund af denne mangel på spredning, udsættes Udsteder for en klyngerisiko i forhold til dens modparters mulige insolvens, hvilket ikke ville være tilfældet, hvis Udsteder havde et mere bredt udvalg af aftalepartnere. Skulle de virksomheder, der er affilieret med Udsteder, blive illikvide eller insolvente, kunne det direkte resultere i, at Udsteder blev illikvid.

Udsteders markedsrisiko

En svær makroøkonomisk situation kan resultere i en mindre emissionsstørrelse og have en negativ indflydelse på Udsteders driftsresultater. I det henseende, afhænger den generelle markedspræstation for værdipapirer især af, hvordan kapitalmarkederne præsterer, hvilket til gengæld påvirkes af den globale økonomiske situation og det økonomiske og politiske rammeværk i de respektive lande (også kaldet markedsrisiko).

Risiko for at Garanten bliver insolvent

Investoren bærer risikoen, hvis Garanten bliver insolvent. Der er en generel risiko for, at Garanten ikke vil kunne overholde alle eller nogle af sine forpligtelser forbundet med garantistillelsen. Af denne grund bør investorer tage højde for ikke bare Udsteders kreditværdighed, men også for Garantens kreditværdighed, når de træffer investeringsbeslutninger.

Den schweiziske garant er ikke medlem af en indlånsgarantifond eller lignende garantisystem, som ville refundere Værdipapirindehavernes krav delvist eller i sin helhed, skulle den Schweiziske Garant blive insolvent.

Risici forbundet med potentielle reorganiserings- og afregningsprocedurer

Hhv. tysk og schweizisk lovgivning og regulativer giver den respektive kompetente myndighed udvidede og skønsmæssige beføjelser ifb. med reorganiserings- og afregningsprocedurer for banker og finanskoncerners moderselskaber, der er etableret iht. Den respektive nationale lovgivning, såsom Bank Vontobel Holding AG, Zürich, Schweiz (den schweiziske Garant) og Bank Vontobel Europe AG, München, Tyskland (den tyske Garant).

Hvis sådanne procedurer iværksættes, kan dette have en negativ effekt på Værdipapirernes markedspris og kan resultere i manglende betaling eller kun delvis betaling af de skyldige beløb iht. Garantien.

Forretningsrisici forbundet med Garanten

Garantens forretningsgang påvirkes af de eksisterende markedsbetingelser og hvordan disse påvirker driften (konsolideret) af Vontobels virksomheder. De faktorer, der påvirker Garantens forretningsaktivitet, kan være forårsaget af generelle markedsrisici, der opstår som følge af ugunstige bevægelser i markedspriser, såsom rentesatser, valutakurser, aktiekurser, råvarepriser og dertil knyttede volatiliteter, og har en negativ effekt på værdiansættelsen af de underliggende aktiver og/eller derivater.

Garantens økonomiske situation kan også påvirkes af flaskehalse ift. likviditet, som f.eks. kan forårsages af likviditetstab når låneforpligtelser nivelleres, eller når det ikke er muligt at forny indlån, med det resultat, at Garanten muligvis midlertidigt ikke vil kunne leve op til finansielle krav på kort sigt.

D.3 Nøgleoplysninger om
D.6 de nøglerisici, der er
særlige for Værdipapirerne/
Risiko for totaltab

Risiko for tab, der skyldes afhængighed af hvordan det Underliggende aktiv præsterer

Værdipapirerne er finansielle instrumenter, hvis værdi udledes af et andet referenceobjekts værdi, det "Underliggende aktiv". Det Underliggende aktiv er et Faktorindeks, hvis præstation til gengæld i vid udstrækning er afhængig af et andet finansielt instruments præstation, Referenceinstrumentet. I tilfælde af Værdipapirer, der er knyttet til Faktorindekser af typen lang, vil et værdifald i Referenceinstrumentet være ufordelagtigt for investoren.

Investorer skal holde in mente, at det Underliggende aktiv er udformet på sådan vis, at Referenceinstrumentets præstation er indarbejdet i beregningen af det Underliggende aktiv med en gearingeffekt. En ændring i Referenceinstrumentet resulterer i en uforholdsmæssig ændring i prisen på det Underliggende aktiv og derfor også i prisen på Værdipapirerne. Som konsekvens deraf, udgør disse Værdipapirer en uforholdsmæssig tabsrisiko, hvis Referenceinstrumentet, og derfor også det underliggende Aktiv, bevæger sig i en retning, som er ugunstig ud fra investorens synspunkt. På grund af den særlige metode hvorved Faktorindekset beregnes, kan sidelæns bevægelser i Referenceinstrumentet også resultere i et markant fald i Faktorindeksets pris og derfor også et markant fald i Værdipapirets pris.

Der er ingen garanti for, at det Underliggende aktivs præstation eller dets Referenceinstruments præstation lever op til investorens forventninger. Hvis Referenceinstrumentet eller det Underliggende aktiv bevæger sig i en retning, som er ugunstig for investoren, er der risiko for tab op til og med totaltab.

Risici i forbindelse med markedsprisen

Prisen på et Værdipapir afhænger primært af prisen på det respektive Underliggende aktiv, som det er knyttet til, og hvis præstation det replicerer. Alle de positive og negative faktorer, der påvirker et Underliggende aktiv (især de, der relaterer til det relevante Referenceinstrument og risiciene forbundet med en investering i et sådant Referenceinstrument), afspejles derfor også principielt i et Værdipapirs pris.

Værdipapirernes pris kan præstere negativt. Dette kan skyldes – som beskrevet foroven – at et Underliggende aktivs pris, som Værdipapiret er knyttet til, bevæger sig i en ugunstig retning, eller kan skyldes andre faktorer, der påvirker prisen (såsom volatilitet, en forringelse af Udsteders kreditvurdering og den overordnede økonomi som helhed).

Risici på optioner vedrørende Værdipapire

Værdipapirerne er derivate finansielle instrumenter, der indarbejder en optionsret, som derfor kan have mange karakteristika til fælles med optioner. Transaktioner med optioner kan indebære et højt risikoniveau. En investering i Værdipapirerne kan udsættes for meget voldsomme værdiudsving og i nogle tilfælde, vil den afhængige option være helt værdiløs, når den udløber. Skulle det ske, kan investor tabe hele det beløb, han investerede i Værdipapirerne.

Volatilitetsrisiko

En investering i Værdipapirer med Underliggende aktiver (knyttet til Referenceinstrumenter) med høj volatilitet er grundlæggende mere risikabel end en investering i Værdipapirer eller Underliggende aktiver med lav volatilitet, da høj volatilitet indebærer et større potentiale for tab.

Risici forbundet med historisk præstation

Et Underliggende aktivs eller et Værdipapirs tidligere præstation er ikke indikator for fremtidig præstation.

Risici forbundet med finansiering af Værdipapirer ved banklån

Hvis købet af Værdipapirerne er finansieret med gæld, bør investorer være opmærksomme på, at i det tilfælde at forventningerne til investeringerne ikke indfries, opbeholder de ikke kun et potentielt tab af den investerede kapital, men også lånerenterne og selve lånet. Det betyder, at investorer i dette tilfælde er udsat for et markant øget risikotab.

Da Værdipapirerne ikke afkaster en løbende indkomst (såsom renter eller udbytte), bør investorer ikke antage, at de vil kunne anvende en sådan løbende indkomst til at afbetale lånerenter, der bliver betalingskyldige under Værdipapirernes løbperiode.

Transaktioner udformet til at udelukke eller begrænse risici

Investoren vil muligvis ikke kunne afdække tilstrækkeligt mod de risici, der er forbundet med Værdipapirerne.

Inflationsrisiko

Inflation har en negativ effekt på de indehavende aktivers realværdi og på det faktiske afkast.

Risici forbundet med den økonomiske konjunktur

Tab kan opstå, fordi investorer ikke tager højde for økonomiens konjunktursvingninger med dets op- og nedadgående faser, eller ikke gør det på korrekt vis, når de træffer deres investeringsbeslutninger, eller holder eller sælger Værdipapirer i faser af den økonomiske konjunktur, der er ugunstige for dem.

Psykologisk markedsrisiko

Psykologiske faktorer kan også markant påvirke prisen på de Underliggende aktiver og derfor påvirke, hvordan Værdipapirerne præsterer. Hvis effekten af disse faktorer på prisen på det Underliggende aktiv eller på dets Referenceinstrument afviger fra markedsreaktionen forventet af investoren, kan dette medføre tab for investoren.

Risici forbundet med Værdipapirhandel, likviditetsrisiko

Værdipapirmægleren (som defineret i E.4) påtager sig at opstille købs- og salgskurser for de udbudsspecifikke Værdipapirer, der er underlagt normale markedsbetingelser.

I tilfælde af ekstraordinære markedsbetingelser eller ekstrem volatile markeder, opstiller Værdipapirmægleren ingen købs- og salgskurser. Selv i tilfælde af normale markedsbetingelser, påtager Værdipapirmægleren sig dog ikke overfor Værdipapirindehaverne det juridiske ansvar at opstille sådanne købs- og salgskurser og/eller at sådanne priser, der opstilles af Værdipapirmægleren, er rimelige.

Potentielle investorer bør derfor ikke antage, at det vil være muligt, at sælge Værdipapirerne i deres løbetid, og skal i alle tilfælde være forberedt på at holde Værdipapirerne indtil Værdiansættelsesdatoen eller, hvis relevant, at indfri Værdipapirerne på næste Eksekveringsdato iht. Vilkår og Betingelser (ved at forelægge en eksekveringsvarsel).

Risici forbundet med prisfastsættelse af Værdipapirerne og effekten af transaktionsomkostninger og kommissioner

Udbudskursen (som defineret i E.3) og salgsprisen for Værdipapirerne, som noteres på det sekundære marked, kan også indeholde en præmie, der ligger over Værdipapirernes matematiske værdi (den såkaldte markedspris), og som ikke er indlysende for investoren. Denne margin og Værdipapirernes aktuariske værdi beregnes af Udsteder og/eller Værdipapirmægleren efter eget skøn, på baggrund af interne prisfastsættelsesmodeller og et antal andre faktorer. Disse faktorer omfatter bl.a. følgende parametre: Værdipapirernes aktuariske værdi, de Underliggende aktivers pris og volatilitet, udbud og efterspørgsel på Værdipapirerne, omkostninger ved risikoafdækning, præmie for risikoantagelse, omkostninger ved strukturering og distribution af Værdipapirerne, eventuelle kommissioner, såvel som eventuelle licens- eller administrationsgebyrer.

Af benævnte grunde, kan priserne opstillet af Værdipapirmægleren afvige fra Værdipapirernes aktuariske værdi og/eller fra den pris, der kan forventes ud fra et kommercielt synspunkt.

Risici forbundet med beskatning af Værdipapirerne

Det er den respektive Værdipapirindehavers og ikke Udsteders ansvar at betale skatter, afgifter, gebyrer, fradrag og andre udgifter, der måtte opstå i forbindelse med Værdipapirerne. Alle udbetalinger foretaget af Udsteder kan være pålagt skat, afgifter, gebyrer, fradrag eller anden type udgift, der skal afregnes, betales, tilbageholdes eller fratrækkes.

Risici forbundet med afdækningstransaktioner foretaget af virksomheder i Vontobel Gruppen

Afdæknings- og handelstransaktioner, der udføres af Udsteder og af virksomheder i Vontobel Gruppen, der indebærer, at et Underliggende aktiv på Værdipapirerne kan have en negativ effekt på Værdipapirernes værdi.

Risici i forbindelse med justeringer, forstyrrelser af markedet, ekstraordinær terminering og afregning

Udsteder eller Indeksregningsagenten kan foretage justeringer med henblik på at afspejle relevante ændringer eller hændelser, som relaterer til det Underliggende aktiv eller dets Referenceinstrument. I denne kontekst kan man ikke udelukke muligheden for, at en justering kan være ugunstig for investoren. Udsteder kan have ret til at terminere Værdipapirerne ekstraordinært. I tilfælde af en ekstraordinær terminering, ophører alle investorernes indfrielsesret, og der består den risiko, at det ekstraordinære termineringsbeløb er lig nul (0). I værste tilfælde, kan den samlede investerede kapital gå tabt.

Risiko for terminering af Udsteder

Udsteder har ordinær termineringsret, og investoren står derfor med den risiko, at Udsteder terminerer og indfrier Værdipapirerne på et tidspunkt, hvor investor ellers ikke ville have solgt eller eksekveret sin ret i. Værdipapirerne. Dette kan medføre, at investoren ikke opnår det ønskede afkast og kan indebære et tab op til og med et totaltab.

Er dette tilfældet, påtager Værdipapirindehaverne sig risikoen for, at deres forventninger i forhold til en værdistigning af Værdipapirerne ikke længere kan indfries grundet Værdipapirernes terminering. I sådanne tilfælde, vil investorer muligvis ikke længere kunne geninvestere, eller vil udelukkende kunne geninvestere under mindre gunstige vilkår og betingelser.

Udsteder har også en ekstraordinær termineringsret, der for investorer indebærer de samme risici som ved ordinær terminering.

Risici forbundet med potentielle interessekonflikter

Der kan findes interessekonflikter mellem virksomhederne i Vontobel Gruppen, som negativt kan påvirke værdien af Værdipapirerne. De væsentligste mulige interessekonflikter er anført under E.4.

Oplysningsrisiko

Der er risiko for, at investorer træffer ukorrekte beslutninger på grund af manglende, ufuldstændige eller ukorrekte oplysninger, som kan være udenfor Udsteders kontrol.

Valutarisiko

Potentielle investorer bør være opmærksomme på, at en investering i Værdipapirerne er forbundet med valutakursrisici, da valutakursen mellem det Underliggende aktivs Valuta og Værdipapirernes Afregningskurs kan bevæge sig i en retning, der er ugunstig for dem.

Hvis Værdipapirernes Afregningsvaluta er forskellig fra investorens nationale valuta eller fra den valuta, som investor ønsker at modtage betaling i, er det de potentielle investorer, der oppebærer valutakursrisiciene.

Risici forbundet med beregning og udformning af det Underliggende aktiv

Udover den gearing-effekt, der er beskrevet foroven, kan der opstå omkostninger (f.eks. låneomkostninger til værdipapirer) og gebyrer (f.eks. et indeksgebyr), afhængigt af hvordan Faktorindekset og det underliggende Referenceinstrument er struktureret, hvilket også har den effekt at Faktorindekset – og derfor det Underliggende Referenceinstrument – taber i værdi.

Risiko for totaltab

Værdipapirerne er særligt risikable investeringsinstrumenter, som kombinerer egenskaber fra derivat transaktioner med egenskaber fra finansielt gearede produkter. Værdipapirerne er derfor forbundet med en uforholdsmæssig risiko for tab (risiko for totaltab). Hvis der opstår et tab, vil det bestå af det beløb, der blev erlagt for Værdipapiret samt tilknyttede omkostninger, såsom depotgebyr eller mægler- og/eller børsgebyrer. Risikoen for tab eksisterer uanset Udsteders og Garantens økonomiske situation.

Der er ingen bestemmelser for regelmæssig distribution, rentebetaling eller minimum tilbagebetalingsbeløb. Kapitaltab kan være omfattende, hvilket under visse betingelser kan betyde, at investorer mister hele deres investering.

E.2b Årsag til udbud og anvendelse af provenu	Det står Udsteder frit at anvende provenuet fra udbuddet af Værdipapirerne. Anvendelse af et sådant provenu har udelukkende til formål at generere profit og/eller beskytte imod visse risici for Udstederen. Udsteder vil under ingen omstændigheder være forpligtet til at investere provenuet fra Værdipapirerne i det underliggende aktiv eller i andre aktiver.
E.3 Vilkår og betingelser for udbuddet	Udbudskurs: DKK 0,098 Udbudsdato: 26 februar 2020 Valuteringsdato: 26 februar 2020 Udbudsstørrelse: 2.249.999 Værdipapirer Minimum handelseenhed: 1 Værdipapirer Offentligt udbud: i Danmark startende 25 februar 2020 fra: Værdipapirernes Udbudskurs er fastlagt af Værdipapirmægleren.

Virksomhederne i Vontobel Gruppen kan også blive modparter i hedging-transaktioner, der relaterer til Udsteders forpligtelser ift. Værdipapirerne. Sådanne handels- eller hedging-transaktioner kan negativt påvirke værdien af Referenceinstrumentet og dermed negativt påvirke de Underliggende aktiver og dermed Værdipapirernes værdi. Udøvelse af andre funktioner af Vontobel Gruppens virksomheder Værdipapirernes Underliggende aktiver er et beskyttet indeks, der er sammensat og beregnet af Bank Vontobel AG, Zürich, som er en virksomhed, der er affilieret med Udsteder som Indeksbergningsagent. Sådanne funktioner kan gøre det muligt for Udsteder og/eller andre virksomheder i Vontobel Gruppen at udregne sammensætningen af det Underliggende aktiv eller at beregne dets værdi. Disse funktioner kan også medføre interessekonflikter, både blandt de respektive virksomheder i Vontobel Gruppen, og mellem disse virksomheder og investorerne, i forhold til at bestemme Værdipapirernes pris og i forhold til at foretage andre forbundne fastlæggelser. Aktivitet som Værdipapirmægler for Værdipapirerne Bank Vontobel Europe AG vil agere Værdipapirmægler ("Værdipapirmægler") for Værdipapirerne. Med sådanne likviditetsskabende aktiviteter vil Værdipapirmægleren – understøttet af andre virksomheder i Vontobel Gruppen – bestemme prisen på Værdipapirerne på baggrund af interne prisfastsættelsesmodeller og et antal andre faktorer. Som resultat deraf, kan priserne fastsat af Værdipapirmægleren afvige markant fra Værdipapirernes markedsværdi, eller fra den værdi, som de forventeligt ville have i økonomisk forstand på et givent tidspunkt. Derudover, kan Værdipapirmægleren til enhver tid revidere den metode, han bruger til at bestemme de noterede priser, f.eks. ved at udvide eller indsnævre spreaden mellem køb- og salgskursen.
